Introduction to the Book

- Author: Mark, cousin of Barnabas, Son of Mary
- Mark served with Paul & Barnabas for a short time, before 'defecting'.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

Acts 15:37-38

Introduction to the Book

- Eventually Mark becomes 'profitable' to Paul 2 Tim 4:11
- A strong bond also develops between Peter & Mark
 - Maybe Peter sees his own reflection in this young man?
- Peter writes affectionately of Mark calling him 'my son' 1 Peter 5:13

Introduction to the Book

- “Mark 10:17-22 relates the rich young ruler questioning Christ about what he needed to do to inherit eternal life. Mark includes a detail that Matthew and Luke failed to mention: “And Jesus looking upon him loved him...” Mark 10:21. This hints at the possibility that young John Mark himself may have been that rich young man”.

- Chuck Missler

Introduction to the Book

- “An early church tradition suggests that it was Mark who was the certain “young man” who followed Christ right up to His entry into the house of the high priest and then, when the guards tried to lay hold of him, left the linen cloth that he was clothed with in their hands and fled naked.

Mark 14:51-52

- Mark was the only one who included this incident”

- Chuck Missler

Introduction to the Book

- According to the early church, Mark's purpose was to write down the Gospel as Peter had presented it to Romans
- This is supported by the internal evidence
- Essentially this is Peter's gospel
 - Mark acted as Peter's amanuensis

Introduction to the Book

- Mark (Peter) presents Jesus as the perfect Servant
 - The same theme runs through Peter's epistles
- Jesus: the perfect Servant of Jehovah
 - Jesus – the lamb without blemish 1 Pet 1:19
 - Jesus obeyed His Father 1 Pet 2:4
 - Jesus submitted to the will of His Father 1 Pet 2:13
 - Jesus is our example of how to serve 1 Pet 2:21

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

1 Peter 2:18-21

Introduction to the Book

- No divine titles are used
- No genealogy is given
 - No one is interested the genealogy of a servant
- No reference to His birth or childhood
 - Of no consequence for a servant
- The visit of the Magi is not recorded
 - No one pays homage to a servant
- There is no sermon on the mount
 - A servant has no kingdom or his own laws

The Servant-King

- 5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Philippians 2:5-8

The Servant-King

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

2 Corinthians 5:21

Introduction to the Book

“Jesus was clearly born to be King of the Jews. As Matthew points out. However, the gospel was not just for the Jews; it was for the whole world. Before Jesus would reign as King of Kings, He would be servant of all by dying for mankind. Mark writes of the works and authority of the One who came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Kay Arthur

Introduction to the Book

- Key verse: “For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many” Mark 10:45
- Greek: ‘Euthos’, used 40x
 - Translated “forthwith”, “straightway”, “immediately”
- Connectives ‘and’, ‘now’ etc. used 1331 x
- “Gospel” (good news) mentioned 8x
 - Only occurs 4x by the other gospel writers
- Mark records 26 miracles, but only 4 parables
- Mark uses the “historical present tense” 150x
 - Jesus comes, Jesus says, Jesus heals—all in the present tense.

Introduction to the Book

- Matthew presents ‘what Jesus said’
 - Major discourses recorded
- Mark presents ‘what Jesus did’
 - Focus is on the action, the miracles
- Luke presents ‘who Jesus was’
 - The perfect man
- John presents ‘who Jesus was’
 - God made flesh

Introduction to the Book

- In Mark we clearly see that the glory of God is not only to be found in His power, His majesty, His might, and His dominion....
- The true glory of God is in His grace.
- What will be the reason for our eternal praise of Him?

Introduction to the Book

“Not the awesome attributes that separate His inconceivable nature from us. Not the eternity of His existence; not the infinitude of His being. Not the omnipotence of His unwearied arm; nor His omniscience that sees to the heart of us. But rather the lowliness and death of Christ are the glory of God”

Chuck Missler

Introduction to the Book

“This is a continuous, unbroken service of the Servant recorded in this Gospel. We read, “And He did this, and He said that.” He must teach men; they were in darkness. He must cheer men; they were without hope. He must heal men; they were sick and suffering. He must free men because they were under the power of Satan. He must pardon and cleanse men because they were sinful”

Henrietta C. Meads

Overview of Mark

- The great challenge of this book:
- Christ as God's faithful Servant has done it all
- Everything! There is nothing we can add.
- That is offensive to us
- It means the best we can bring is not acceptable; our best efforts are worthless
 - This was Cain's great problem
- This is why GRACE changes everything!

The Gospel of Mark

Chapter 1

- 1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God;
- 2 As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

The Public Ministry of Jesus

¹⁴ Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

¹⁵ And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

Mark 1:14-20

- The promise of Genesis 3:15 has reached fruition

You did not choose Me...

¹⁶ Now as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

¹⁷ And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

¹⁸ And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

Mark 1:14-20

You did not choose Me...

¹⁹ And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

²⁰ And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

Mark 1:14-20

- The wonderful work of Grace
- It is all about Him; there's nothing we can add

The Power of the Word

21 And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursed is withered away.	Mark 15:33-37 And when the sixth hour was come (12:00pm), there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour (3:00pm). And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?.....And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.	John 19:31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation (14th), that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day (15th), for that sabbath day was an high day. (See below) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.	Exodus 12:18 "In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even" - Thus for the whole 7 day period they were to eat unleavened bread	Resurrection! And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee	Mark 14:1 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.	Matt 26:17-20 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread..... See Ex 12:18 (above right)	Jesus Crucified  "Paid in full..." 3:00pm	Matthew 27:62 Now the next day (15th), that followed the day of the preparation (that being the 14th), the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulcher be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.	Mark 16:1-2 And when the sabbaths (Plural) were past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulcher at the rising of the sun.
Truly He is the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world! (John 1:29)	Mark 11:10-11aBlessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest	 Bethany "So the evening and the morning were the first day" (Gen 1:5) Because of this the Jewish day starts at sundown and goes through to the following morning representing a complete 24 hour day.	Mark 14:1 After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.	Matt 26:17-20 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread..... See Ex 12:18 (above right)	Luke 23:53-54 And he took [the body of Jesus] down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcherAnd that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.	Lev 23:5-7 "In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's Passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD"	Matthew 27:62 Now the next day (15th), that followed the day of the preparation (that being the 14th), the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. There they made him a supper (i.e an evening meal)	11th Begins Mark 11:11b ...And now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.	12th Begins Mark 11:19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.	13th Begins Mary pours costly oil on Jesus' feet & anoints His head; Judas, incensed, decides to go to the chief priests. A plot is hatched and planned for the following evening - only 24 hours from start to finish.	14th Begins Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.	15th Begins 1st Night	16th Begins 2nd Night	17th begins 3rd Night	18th Begins Matt 12:40 For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth
NB: "Passover" here is used to denote the 'festival' period commencing on the 15th, not the supper on the 14th. It is also used this way in John 13:1 So after 6 days is the 15th & the feast.	Luke 22:1 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.	John 13:1-2 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father..... And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;	John 13:1-2 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father..... And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;	Mark 14:12-18 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and.... eat the passover?And in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.	The Gospel - as defined by the Apostle Paul "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you... For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures"(1 Cor 15:1-4)	According to the scriptures ...Christ died for our sins = Feast of Passover ...was buried = Feast of Unleavened bread ...He rose again = Feast of Firstfruits	 Jerusalem Location of the most important week in human history

Lev 23:5-7 "In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD's Passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD"	Matthew 27:62 Now the next day (15th), that followed the day of the preparation (that being the 14th), the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulcher be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.	Mark 10:34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.
* The Hebrew word is 'Beyn' which means 'between' This is another evidence of the supernatural design of the Bible. Just as in this model, laid down some 6000 years before, Jesus was 'taken' on the 10th, and as a Lamb without blemish, was killed on the 14th between the evenings, shedding His own blood to become our Passover Lamb, atoning for our sin once and for all.	"So the evening and the morning were the first day" (Gen 1:5) Because of this the Jewish day starts at sundown and goes through to the following sundown, i.e. Evening then morning representing a complete 24 hour day.	Mark here refers to the feast/festival starting from the 15th (which was the first day off work) - see Luke 22:1 so after 2 days = 15th & the feastThe disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.The disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.The disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.	"Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles" (See also Exodus 23:14-15)	Now the next day (15th), that followed the day of the preparation (that being the 14th), the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command therefore that the sepulcher be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.	And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.
Truly He is the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world! (John 1:29)	10th Begins John 12:1-2 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. There they made him a supper (i.e. an evening meal)	11th Begins Mark 11:11b And when evening was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.	12th Begins Mark 11:19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.	13th Begins Many pours costly oil on Jesus' feet anoints His head; Judas, incensed, decides to go to the chief priests. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures" (1 Cor 15:1-4)	According to the scriptures ...Christ died for our sins = Feast of Passover ...was buried = Feast of Unleavened bread ...He rose again = Feast of Firstfruits	Jerusalem Location of the most important week in human history
NB: "Passover" here is used to denote the 'festival' period commencing the 15th, not the supper on the 14th. It is also used this way in John 13:1. So after 6 days is the 15th & the feast. Last 12 Verses of Mark?

- In some versions these verses are omitted
- ...or a foot note is given:
 - “Not in the most reliable mss”
 - “The most reliable early manuscripts and other ancient witnesses do not have Mark 16:9-20”
- Why the controversy?
- This contention dates back around 150 years to two men, Westcott & Hort.
- They argued that these verses were a later addition and not in the original

Westcott & Hort

- Brooke Foss Westcott and Fenton John Anthony Hort were Anglican churchmen who had contempt for the Textus Receptus.
- They began a work in 1853 that resulted, after 28 years, in a Greek New Testament, based on the corrupt Vaticanus and Siniaticus.

Westcott & Hort

- Brooke Foss Westcott and Fenton John Anthony Hort were Anglican churchmen who had contempt for the Textus Receptus.
- They began a work in 1853 that resulted, after 28 years, in a Greek New Testament, based on the corrupt Vaticanus and Siniaticus.
- Both were influenced by Origen and others who denied the deity of Jesus Christ and embraced the prevalent Gnostic heresies of the period from the headquarters of the Gnostics, Alexandria.
- There are over 3,000 contradictions in the four gospels alone between these manuscripts. They changed the traditional Greek text in 8,413 places.

Last 12 Verses of Mark?

- Westcott & Hort rejected these verses
 - As do many modern translations
- Yet these verses are quoted by Irenaeus in his commentary which dates to 150 A.D.!
- They are also quoted by Hypolatus in 2nd Century A.D.
 - How could they be quoted if they were not yet written???
- Clearly they did exist several hundred years before the Alexandrian Codices

The background of the slide features a vibrant sunset with a sky transitioning from deep blue at the top to bright orange and red near the horizon. In the foreground, an open Bible is laid flat, showing several pages of text. The text on the Bible is partially obscured by the large, bold title text. The overall scene is peaceful and evocative, suggesting a time of reflection or study.
